

How we use your information

EasyRead version

We will ask you questions about your disability.

We will ask you questions about your ethnicity.

Ethnicity means things that identify you like your religion, beliefs or where you come from.

We add this to the information you have given us in the chat.

This information helps us to see what local authorities are doing.

We use the information to fight for better social care in your area.

We never share any information that would let people know who you are. This would be things like your email address.

After 14 days we delete any information that lets people know who you are.
